

Do you believe in the power of sport?

Disability Sport Development Officer

Vantage Point

Full time, 35.75 hours per week

Temporary post - 1 year

£25,155 per annum

If you believe that sport has the power to make a difference for disabled people and communities, then this could be the role for you.

You will be responsible for developing opportunities for disabled people of all ages to get active and stay active through sport. This will include developing a programme of activities, raising the profile of disability sport and leading the awareness and up-skilling of our internal workforce.

Identifying and addressing barriers, and building strong and effective relationships with our partners will be a priority. If you have great communication skills, excellent team working credentials and solid organisational skills, together with a degree level qualification in a related field or experience in an equivalent sports or leisure development background, we're waiting to hear from you.

In return, we're offering one of the most competitive rewards packages in the business, with generous pension and holidays and free membership to all of our centres.
